

System Functions

Basic Information and Administration Module

- By entering several economic indicators of the country to the system, the expected prices can be obtained for the next years. Basic information used in FMAS is managed
- Forms a standard in the coding of the materials and firms, also all related information of the firms and materials are stored in a central database
- The banned firm information is transferred to all related branches in the system in a short time
- Users and access rights are defined

Completion Information Module

- Bid Information is managed
- The analysis of the information entered by the related departments is performed in a short time
- Warehouses are managed
- Produces reports like;
 - Material Price Increase Report according to Weighted Average
 - The Deviation from the Estimated Price Report
 - Market Analysis Report
 - Comparison Report for the Regions

Appropriation Information Module

- Expenditure and revenue information is managed
- Reports regarding the incomes and expenditures are prepared
- By analyzing the reduction information for the repeated adjudication, the gain of the national treasure can be observed
- By entering several economic indicators of the country to the system, the expected prices can be obtained for the next years

